'N'
'ROUND

Today's little effort is to be largely devoted to dumb stunts pulled by different persons.

One of the dumbest occurred the other evening. A certain aviator, fresh from the army's training corps and assigned to duty at a San Francisco field, took his kid brother for a plane ride. They circled over Richmond. To attract attention of their parents here, they dropped a flare.

Hundreds of persons here immediately thought that the plane was in distress. Some hastily telephoned to the army field, where they reported the occurrence. They also flooded this newspaper office with eyed appeals to find out just what had happened to the poor pilots.

Those of you who worried about what happened to the poor pilot may feel relieved to know that he was promptly hawled out good and properly when he appeared at the field after his flight.

Our operative No. X12 reports that the other day in the local high school the children were given a list of questions and answers similar (there, I spelled it right for a change.) One of the words given was "effigy" and the class was asked to give a simile for that. Three bright members of the class immediately replied that it meant "wife."

Speaking of similes again there is a time when we wish we had a dictionary of that type when the printer brings in a streamer and informs us that this darned thing is two letters too long.

We often wonder how many people reads editorials in newspapers. It seems to us that a majority of persons are frightened by most of the weighty editorials they have read before and refuse to read any of them.

The best policy we believe is editorials on the front page, only when they are needed.

Some time ago a small town newspaper was poked fun at because the editor used rotten grammar. The next day he declared in print as follows:

"Some of yaps are yelling because I don't use good grammar. That's one reason why I'm a small town newspaperman—I can't use good grammar. And if I did use it, you poor dumb yaps would not know what I was talking about."

Hallowe'en was celebrated last night. So if you arise this morning and find your Austin is parked on the roof and the dog house is on the front porch, and your trees have been dynamited and your shrubbery destroyed, just laugh, saying, "Heh, Heh! Kids will be kids! Oh, well, life is like that. I was once a kid myself."

However, don't do like we will do if anyone has worked out on our joint.

TROOPS GUARD CITY IN OIL FIRE PERIL

New Martinez S. P. Bridge To Be Dedicated Today RESORT MENACED BY NEW BRUSH FIRE

OIL FIELDS SAVED FROM BLAZE

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—UP—A brush fire caught up by a high wind from the ocean, whipped northeast late today in defiance of 800 men recruited to fight it and threatened the cabins of Seminole Hot Springs, a popular resort in the Santa Monica mountains.

The fire, which started in the Thousand Oaks district of Ventura county, blackened 30,000 acres of watershed before moving south into Los Angeles county, where approximately 15,000 acres were burned last night and today.

Backfire Planned
The fight was being waged along the Decker ranch road to night. The blaze jumped across several times, but was driven back. County fire wardens said they hoped to backfire the fire along the road.

To the east of the advancing fire was not only Seminole Hot Springs, but Malibu lake, which is north by east of the springs.

The nearest point of considerable habitation was the town of Calabasas, still farther northeast of Malibu lake. The fire was not endangering Hollywood or Los Angeles. Los Angeles county touched Ventura county on the south and curves around to touch the eastern side of that county.

Fire Hazard
However, the Los Angeles fire department obtained $2,500 from (Continued on Page 5)

Inman today is visiting southern San Joaquin points including Lathrop, Tracy, Escalon, Manteca, Linden, and other towns. He is accompanied by Warren H. Atherton, prominent Stockton attorney, who is in line for state commander of the American Legion, and himself for a time a likely candidate for congress.

Indicating the tremendous effect of the endorsement of Inman by Charles L. Neumiller, former chairman of the Republican State Central committee, the Stockton Independent, a Curry paper today published the announcement under a seven column heading on page one.

War Veterans support of Inman in San Joaquin now is outstanding, including that of Atherton, James Barnes present commander and Fred R. Beerman, past commander of the American Legion post there. Significant in labor circles is the endorsement of the Sacramento to Richmond labor heads by F. C. McDonald state chairman of the California Builders Trades Council. He urged labor organizations to work in his behalf as a true friend of labor.

MANY FLEE FROM FIRE AREA

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 31.—UP—Oil, the secret of much of Oklahoma City's prosperity and growth, tonight had become a destructive menace through the wild flow of a well near the wholesale district.

The No. 1 C. E. Stout gusher sent a roaring cloud of petroleum over the city, splashing buildings with a grimy coating.

Troops were called out and patrolled an area of 50 city blocks adjacent to the business section where the gusher blew in last night cutting away valves and throwing into the air an output equal to 125,000 barrels of oil daily. Behind this inflammable cloud was a gas volume of more than 65,000,000 cubic feet which vaporized the black fluid.

Apprehension gripped the city which was faced with a menace paralleling the Frankenstein of fable which turned destructive fury on its creator.

Stones were coughed up from the well and rattled against the steel framework of the derrick, falling like hail on surrounding wholesale houses and factories. Any one of them might strike a spark which would cause a disastrous fire.

Building of the new unit was said in the official announcement of the company as an indication of its faith in the future prosperity of the petroleum industry.

The only damage reported was the breaking of a $50 plate glass window in a hotel at First street and Nevin avenue.

Police reported that it was one of the quietest Hallowe'ens here for some time. Soaping of windows was not so thoroughly practiced as it has been in the past.

UNBEATEN GRID TEAMS TO MEET TODAY

NEK YORK, Oct. 31. — UP—Sixteen undefeated and unified football teams are risking their records in games scheduled for the week-end.

There are 18 other teams of more or less importance which have lost no games and have had no ties. Two of these, Duquesne in the east and Oregon on the far coast, are to be idle Saturday.

Many of these unblemished records are in for some chipping Saturday. Here in the east, Dartmouth's Indian eleven is meeting Yale. Dartmouth may be hard put to it to win if Albie Booth, small Yale halfback, has one of his good days.

In the south, Alabama and Kentucky, red-hot rivals for the Southern conference championship, will meet at Lexington. Neither has been beaten nor tied.

Detroit has breezed through the first half of its program with a perfect record, but meets Iowa at Detroit Saturday and Iowa is far from a pushover.

Kansas, another mid-western leader, will play Pennsylvania which has lost but a single game, while the unbeaten Northwestern varsity plays Minnesota. Notre Dame is a third midwest team without defeat or tie and should remain in that class after playing Indiana Saturday.

Back in the east, Fordham is playing West Virginia. Fordham is the only team in the country without defeat, tie or enemy points. West Virginia's sophomore team has improved vastly in the past couple of weeks but the Rams will be wide favorites.

Western Maryland's fine young squad will risk its record against the husky U. S. Marines. Cornell, undefeated and untied, and primed for action after a fortnight's rest, plays Columbia here. A Columbia victory would be a real surprise.

Other undefeated and untied are Georgia and Clemson who play Florida and Tennessee, respectively.

Utah and Washington State, far west teams with perfect records, are to tackle Colorado Aggies and Oregon State.

High Runners Will Meet At San Rafael

A strong squad of Richmond Union High school trackmen will represent the Richmond Union high school cross country running club this afternoon in a meet to be held against Tamalpais High school at Tamalpais school.

A mile and a half race and an 880-yard relay will be run off between halves of a football game to be played at Tamalpais.

The athletes who will run for the local high school are: Schuyler Albert, Anthony Faria, James Van, Ivan Utter, Walter Hopkins, Donald McLennan and Grover Johnson. Several others may also compete for Richmond in today's event.

River Man 46 Years, Can't Swim

EVANSVILLE, Ind. — Charles Ringer, a river man for 46 years, cannot swim. The Ohio river has been the scene of his work as a fisherman, dam worker, log roller and boat house custodian. He has been in the river only three or four times, when he fell in.

LEGION ELEVEN WILL PLAY S. R.

The Richmond American Legion eleven will tackle the most difficult assignment of its 1930 season tomorrow afternoon when it goes into action at Santa Rosa against the Santa Rosa American Legion warriors, the "Bone-Crushers" of state-wide fame.

Without a doubt, the Richmond post will have upon its hands the fiercest battle it has yet participated in this year. The Santa Rosans are the owners of the greatest American Legion football reputation in the state. They have not lost a single game out of 27 played during the last several years. Their lineup consists of ex-college stars experienced in all the tricks and finer points of the grid-iron game.

This will be the opposition that the Richmond warriors must face tomorrow afternoon at Santa Rosa. Yet the Richmond eleven has been showing a fairly consistent brand of football this season, and showed special improvement in their contest with Petaluma last week, which they won by a score of 18 to 6. They have thus far won three games, lost one, and tied one. They were the only team to score against Antioch this year. With such a record, the Richmond gridgers should be able to make a strong stand against the more experienced Santa Rosans.

A caravan of Richmond supporters will form at the Elks club tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock, according to an announcement by Dan "Hap" Bradley manager of the Richmond American Legion team. A large number of Richmond fans are expected to make the trip to Santa Rosa tomorrow.

The game will be played on the Ernie Nevers' football field in Santa Rosa.

Next week-end the Richmond American Legion eleven will tangle with the Utopia club squad of San Francisco on the Richmond Union High school field.

Negotiations are in progress for a game between the Richmond and Monterey Legion teams. The game, if secured, will be played on Armistice Day at Monterey.

STANFORD WINS FROM U.C.L.A. 20 TO 0

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—UP—The Stanford football team made a serious effort to live down its overwhelming defeat by U. S. C. when it won from the University of California at Los Angeles, 20 to 0 in a game played here tonight.

U. C. L. A. held the Cardinals to seven to nothing in the first half.

Shortly after the first kickoff, Stanford started a march from its own 35 yard line to the Bruin 8 yard line in four plays. Bill Simkins galloped through the left side of the line for a touchdown and Grey converted.

In the third quarter Grey intercepted Bergdahl's pass and on the next play Rothert tore 56 yards over his own right tackle for a touchdown. Grey failed to convert.

After the kickoff Stanford had the ball on the Bruin 43 yard

GRID GAMES ON COAST LACK INTEREST

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—UP—Only two football games on the Pacific coast are regarded as worthy of more than passing attention this week-end.

The single contest of importance Saturday will be at Portland, where Washington State college, leading the Pacific Coast conference, meets Oregon State college. On the following day the "little big game" between St. Mary's of Moraga and University of Santa Clara will be played here.

There has been at least one surprise every week for football fans in the far west. Six times a majority of the experts have been mistaken. They were wrong when Washington State beat California, 16 to 0, and University of Southern California, 7 to 6; when California defeated St. Mary's 7 to 6; when U. S. C. scored 41 points at Stanford, when Washington decisively beat California, and when California lost to the Olympic club.

Therefore no one has unlimited enthusiasm in making Washington State and St. Mary's the favorites tonight.

Many reasons could be given why these teams should finish ahead, especially since Oregon State and Santa Clara have each been beaten twice this year, but they were cautiously expounded and reservations were made.

The only other outstanding team on the coast they will feature its first varsity competition this week-end in California. The strongest combination of Bears available will start against Montana at Berkeley in a conference game. Washington State trounced Montana, 61 to 0, last Saturday, and the Bears hope the northerners will give them a harder fight so they can be in better shape for the game with U. S. C. next week.

In other games U. S. C. will probably run up a high score against Denver in Los Angeles. Washington is much stronger than college of the Puget Sound, the contest being played at Seattle. Gonzaga will put up a good battle against Idaho and the University of San Francisco will not have an easy time with Nevada at Reno.

Oregon, only undefeated eleven on the coast beside Washington State, has a complete rest Stanford met university of California at Los Angeles in the south tonight.

line. Rothert made three through center, and then, with a nice change of pace, went the remaining 40 yards to a touchdown. Grey again converted.

RECORD-HERALD—ALWAYS FIRST WITH THE NEWS

High School Eleven Badly Walloped By Piedmont Clansmen

"We don't know why! It just seemed to happen!"

This is an approximately accurate summary of the sentiment voiced by members of and rooters for the Richmond Union High school eleven last night, following Richmond's 46 to 6 trouncing at the hands of the Piedmont Highlanders.

The Richmond gridgers yesterday showed marked superiority over their exhibition in last Friday's contest with Berkeley, which the locals lost 34 to 6. They displayed a splendid drive that did damage to the Piedmont defense during the second and third quarters. And yet, the Highland clan swept through their ranks during lapses, recovered fumbles, made several sensational runs, with the result that they piled up the greatest score ever made this season on the local field.

Scored In Third
Piedmont was leading 7 to 0 at the end of the first quarter. They were leading 20 to 0 at the conclusion of the second quarter. In spite of a strong Richmond attack, Richmond collected its first and only score early in the third quarter, when Baskett went over on a line plunge for a touchdown, following a sensational drive into Piedmont territory. Piedmont was held during the remainder of the third period, but suddenly opened up in the fourth quarter to collect four touchdowns in quick succession. The Richmond boys struggled desperately to keep in the running, but many fumbles and mishaps enabled Piedmont to repeatedly wait down the field under the rising moon.

The contest opened with a kickoff by Scarcella of Richmond almost to Piedmont's goal line. The ball was returned to the 30-yard line. The Highlanders then inaugurated an attack consisting of reverses and end runs, which resulted in the ball being placed on Richmond's 20 yard line. A pass brought the play to the two-yard line. Dick Moyer, Piedmont fullback, then carried the ball over center for a touchdown. Moyer also converted.

High Fumbles
Piedmont kicked off to Richmond's 25 yard line, where Avilla was brought down. Ed Masek, Richmond halfback, then went around end and cut, thereby reaching his own 35 yard line. Richmond drove through to the 40 yard line for yardage. Masek continued the Richmond attack by reaching his own 48 yard line. Then Richmond made one of its fumbles on its own 45 yard line. Piedmont was held and was forced to punt, the ball landing on Richmond's five yard line. Baskett punted back to his own 32 yard line. Piedmont went to Richmond's 25 yard line, was stopped, and Richmond received the ball. After several unsuccessful plays, Baskett punted to the Piedmont 45 yard line, and the ball was brought to the local 45 yard line. A Piedmont pass was intercepted by Clarence Hall, Richmond center, on Piedmont's 47 yard line. A pass from Masek to Boschetti placed the ball on Piedmont's 40 yard line. Richmond made another fatal fumble on Piedmont's 35-yard line, when the first quarter ended.

Piedmont drove through to its own 45 yard line, passed to Richmond's 35 yard line, passed to Richmond's 19 yard line, drove to Richmond's 15 yard line, went through center to the local's one yard line, failed to go over on his first plunge, and finally went over tackle for a touchdown. Moyer carrying the ball, Moyer converted.

Another Fumble
Piedmont kicked off to the local's 35 yard line. Richmond once more fumbled on its own 42 yard line. Piedmont encircled the local's end to reach the 20 yard zone, went through to the 10 yard line, and then on to a touchdown. Moyer again carrying the ball. Piedmont failed to convert.

Piedmont kicked off to Richmond's 30 yard line. A pass from Stoddard to Boschetti laid the pigskin on Richmond's 46 yard line. Richmond lost approximately 10 yards on several plays, but a pass from Stoddard to Snodgrass again brought the ball to Richmond's 45 yard line. Richmond punted to Piedmont's 30 yard line, where the ball was fumbled by Piedmont and recovered by Richmond. Stoddard went around end to Piedmont's 20 yard line. A Richmond pass was intercepted on Piedmont's 30 yard line. Piedmont punted back to the local's 22 yard line. Another Richmond pass was intercepted on its own 29 yard line and Piedmont then went to the two yard line on an end run as the half ended.

The second half opened with Piedmont kicking off to Richmond's 33 yard line. Masek made a gain of 16 yards. Richmond was held, and Baskett punted out to Piedmont's 15 yard line. Piedmont went round end to its for a 10 yard gain, and finally punted to its own 40 yard line. Richmond went round end to the 10 yard line. Masek plunged through for a five yard gain. Baskett then went over tackle for a touchdown. Snodgrass failed to convert.

Piedmont Fumbles
Baskett punted off to Piedmont's 10 yard line. The ball was brought to the Highlanders' 40 yard line, where it was fumbled and recovered by Hall of Richmond. Masek went through to Piedmont's 23 yard line. Piedmont received a five yard penalty and Baskett went to the 25 yard line. Richmond lost the ball on downs by a margin of one yard, following several tries. Piedmont executed an end run to its own 35 yard line, made yardage to its 46 yard line and went round end for a 26 yard gain. Piedmont was thrown for a loss of 10 yards, and then fumbled, the ball being recovered by Hall of Richmond on his own 40 yard line. Following a 15 yard penalty, Richmond punted to Piedmont's 45 yard line. A Piedmont pass was fumbled on Richmond's 30 yard line, fell into the hands of a local athlete, was again fumbled, and recovered by Piedmont. The Piedmont backs then swung around end to reach the local's 15 yard line. There the third quarter ended.

Piedmont went over center to Richmond's five yard line. Moyer went over center again for a three yard gain, went over center to the one yard line, and DeMartini went over for a touchdown. DeMartini also plunged through for the extra point.

Pass Intercepted
Piedmont kicked off to Richmond's 30 yard line. A Richmond pass was intercepted on the local's 40 yard line and the ball was brought to the 20 yard line. Piedmont went through for an eight yard gain, went around end to the local's four yard line, and Van Trefethen, quarterback, made another touchdown on a line plunge. Another plunge by Trefethen collected the extra point.

Piedmont kicked off to Richmond's 30 yard line. Masek went to his own 43 yard line. Richmond made two incomplete passes.

Erskine of Piedmont then recovered a blocked punt on Richmond's 30 yard line and raced away to add his little bit to the rapidly increasing Piedmont score. Piedmont failed to convert.

Piedmont kicked off to Richmond's 25 yard line. Richmond crashed through to its own 45 yard line and was stopped. Van Trefethen of Piedmont then made the most sensational run of the day when he received a Richmond punt on his own 17 yard line and cut backward and forward until he had finally crossed the Richmond goal line. He was a most stopped on his 30 yard line, cut back, was almost caught again, kept on going around end, cut again, and the remainder of the run was a one-sided race up the outside line between him and several Richmond athletes in hot pursuit. Piedmont failed to convert.

Piedmont kicked over the Richmond goal line for a touchdown. Richmond punted far into Piedmont territory. Piedmont punted to the 50 yard line. Richmond brought the ball to Piedmont's 36 yard line, tried several passes, and the contest ended with the score 46 to 6.

Hard Game
Last night's game was a difficult one to analyze. At times, Richmond showed themselves on a par with Piedmont. During much of the

Woodmen Nine Will Meet Rich Pie Team Sunday

When Richmond Modern Woodmen meet Rich Pies here tomorrow afternoon at the First street park the triple tie now existing in the Oakland Winter league is expected to be broken.

Modern Woodmen, Rich Pies, one of the strongest teams in the league, and Rola club, are tied for first place with two wins each and no losses.

The game scheduled between Modern Woodmen and Rich Pies is expected to draw a record crowd. The Woodmen were offing up their arms for one of the hardest contests of the season, and if they are victorious will stand out as the leading contender for honors when the season has finally ended.

Young Stripling Wins Fast Bout

BOSTON, Oct. 31.—UP—W. L. Young Stripling, a technical heavyweight, scored a technical knockout over K. O. Christener, Akron, Ohio, in the third round of their scheduled ten round bout at Boston Arena tonight.

The fight was ended by the referee in the third round when he intervened to prevent Christener from receiving undue injury. Near the middle of the round Christener received a bad cut on the nose while fighting at close range.

time they were completely baffled by the tricky Piedmont reverses. Many promising drives by Richmond were brought to an abrupt end by costly fumbles or mixed plays. Richmond's playing as a whole seemed to be too ragged to vie with the polished football of the Highlanders. Much individual brilliance was shown by local athletes, but the team seemed unable to work in unison, and, as a result, Richmond players were found wanting when Piedmont received the best of several breaks.

In the backfield, Baskett continued to show strong driving power at fullback. Masek was also responsible for much of the yard gaining by the local team. Others who worked well in the backfield for Richmond yesterday were: Snodgrass, quarterback and Scarcella, halfback. Substitutes in the backfield were: Boschetti, Bravin, G. Miller, halfbacks; Stoddard, quarterback.

Ray Jullerat, end and Avilla, guards, gave outstanding performances in the Richmond line yesterday. Jullerat often succeeded in spilling threatening Piedmont plays by slipping in from his position. Avilla, a first year gridder, fought strenuously and well yesterday on his first real chance in action.

The Richmond starting lineup was as follows: Jullerat, Drexel, ends; Lilly, Ball, tackles; Avilla, Hoefler, guards; Hall, center; substitutes—Pizzoli, Passoni, Gerletti, ends; Westman, Klobas, Ferry, Baxter, tackles; Baxter, Corrazo, guards; and Brignone, center.

The most outstanding players for Piedmont were: Moyer, fullback, and Trefethen, quarterback. Moyer did excellent line plunging, and showed sensational speed at the critical moments.

The Piedmont starting lineup consisted of: Moyer, fullback; Frye, Haynes, halfbacks; Trefethen, quarterback; Shappe, Finney, ends; Trebury, Gibbon, tackles; Huebbe, Eggleston, guards, and Van Kirk, center.

The Richmond Union High school eleven will meet Alameda High school next Friday afternoon, at Alameda in the last contest of the Alameda County Athletic league football season.

SAINT MARY'S PLAY BRONCOS ON SUNDAY

SAINT MARY'S COLLEGE, Oct. 31.—The Notre Dame system should get a good test Sunday when the Galloping Gaels of St. Mary's meet the Broncos of Santa Clara in the annual "little big game," for both St. Mary's and Clipper Smith are products of the South Bend school. When their teams meet Sunday the fans should learn something of the shift play popularized by K. K. Rockne.

A rejuvenated Santa Clara team is set to upset the Gaels. Coach Smith took some time to find his proper offensive combination, but evidently he has succeeded if the recent defeat of the powerful Olympic club by the Broncos means anything. Morey, Mettler and Stockton, Bronco backs, teamed up well in that contest and should give the Gaels plenty of trouble.

All the Madigans are in good shape for the game; Hunt and Patterson, returning to the line-up in yesterday's scrimmage. Only John Brown, sub tackle, remaining on the injured list with a broken larynx.

One of the great battles the fans are looking forward to in Sunday's contest, is the battle of the centers, Tassi and Peebles. Tassi is rated by the scribes as one of the outstanding pivot men of the coast, while Peebles also ranks high. The contest between these two good men may take away some of the glory from the performances of the backfield stars on both teams.

No iceable in the Gaels' last game was the improvement of Dick Boyle as quarterback, his new position this season. Dick's blocking and interference were sure, swift and vicious against the Gonzagans. Brovelli, a new addition to the Blue Ghosts looked fair at fullback, but seems to need seasoning and experience. Madigan has him in reserve for Barrett, regular full.

While Stennett and Toscani have been the big point-setters for the Gaels, Madigan has developed two backs of surprising ability in Bill Beasley and Red Schefflin. Both these young fellows should give the Broncos trouble on account of their speed.

Many of the Gaels forward wall, McNally, Weisgerber, Sperbeck, Capt. Ebding and Peebles, meet Santa Clara for the last time. As this annual battle is a tradition at the Moraga campus, the Gaels are out to win it. They are not risking any chances in losing another contest before they meet the great Fordham team in New York on November 15.

Soccer Club Will Play At San Leandro
Richmond Soccer club meets its next opposition tomorrow afternoon in San Leandro when they tangle with the Ibericos of that city.

The game is scheduled for two o'clock, and members are expected to leave this city at noon time. The meeting place was set for the Longfellow school at a meeting of the club this week.

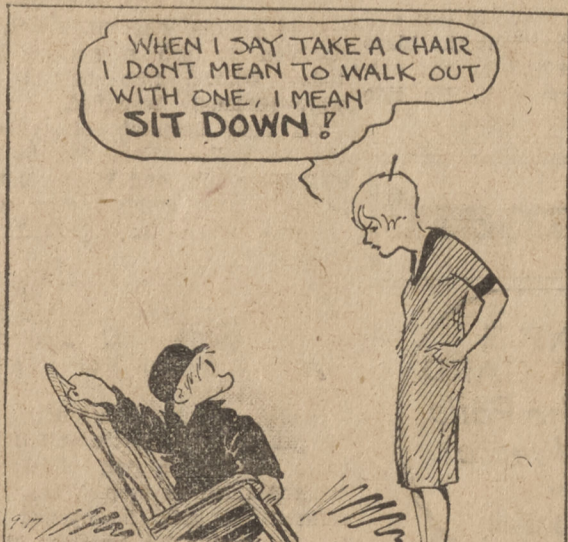

Players who will make the trip are: Williams, goal; Freese and Blair, fullbacks; Baker, Belir, and Long, halfbacks; Grice, Sebastian, Brock, Mesrop, Melville and Hood, forwards.

Rooters and supporters of the Richmond outfit are also planning on making the trip.

LOCAL GIRL SETS NEW TRAVEL MARK

After traveling more than 75,000 miles in five years Mrs. A. R. Bartlett daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Bradbury of this city is visiting here where she will remain until next spring when she will again join her husband and return to her home in Calcutta, India.

Mrs. Bartlett a former student at the University of California has circled the world three times during the past five years, and apparently has not yet lost her zest for travel.

She arrived in Richmond this week from the Orient on the President McKinley after having been in practically every country in that section of the world.

With Mrs. Bartlett is "Pekin Peter" son of the famous "Whiskey" and "Soda" Pekinese dogs. Peter was declared to be more fond of mint julep than the rarest bone.

Shanghai was said by Mrs. Bartlett to be the coming metropolis of the east. That is also the consensus of opinion of business men, she said.

Mrs. Bartlett's husband is a representative of an automobile concern in foreign lands, and travels over the entire world in pursuance of his business. Bartlett will come from New York to join his wife next spring, when they will again sail for their home in Calcutta. Mrs. Bartlett's parents' home is at 418 Biscell.

MANY ENJOY SOCIAL NIGHT OF WOODMEN

When better entertainment programs are put on they will be put on by Modern Woodmen of America.

That was the consensus of opinion last night after the monthly program sponsored by the group. Approximately 50 Richmond members along with visitors from Oakland and other chapters participated in the event.

A delegation from the Woodmen's baseball team also enjoyed the affair.

Following dinner Harry Buckman of an Oakland chapter spoke to members on the general employment situation. He was applauded for his message.

Musical numbers by a trio consisting of Clair Thomas, Clarence Brown and Walter Moore, who were accompanied by Mrs. Thomas were highly applauded by the group. Neighbor Richards of Oakland furnished piano solos during the evening.

M. F. Kaufman delivered a message to the audience.

A special feature of the event was a four round boxing match which kept the guests on the edge of their seats during the entire time the boys were milling. The contestants were Claude Harding and O. Sargent. Weights of the two principals were not announced, but it was agreed that both were capable of defending themselves should an emergency arise.

Members of the social committee, who prepared the refreshments were: Roy Hansen, Claude Harding, George Seyferth and Ray Gough. Their manner of serving a repast was highly applauded by the guests after the affair had ended.

DROUTH RELIEF HEAD REVIEWS WORK

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The decision by many railroads to extend from October 31 to November, 30 the time for making emergency shipments of feed and livestock at reduced rates was the most encouraging development in the drought relief program during the last week, Dr. C. W. Warburton, secretary of the Federal drought relief committee, said today.

The reduced rate ranges from one-half to two-thirds of the regular rates. Doctor Warburton explained, and have meat haulers to farmers. Already farmers of Tennessee have bought 1,000 cars of feed, on which the savings in freight rates amounted to $50 a car, and one county in Virginia has reported an estimated saving of $55,000. The 48 Virginia counties that have reported show a saving of about $630,000.

The counties eligible for the reduced rates are designated by the Secretary of Agriculture on the basis of drought damage to their feed supply. There are now 1,015 counties on the list. These rates say Doctor Warburton, are only for those who are in distress because of the drought.

"Many farmers," he reported, "have not been able to buy yet feed because they have not yet marketed their crops, or because of crop failure. Much of the feed has been purchased by dealers or by farmers who had a little cash or could offer some basis for credit. The extension of time for making shipments at reduced rates affords the chance, after taking stock of the feed supplies and saving from a poor crop and by saving every bit of roughage in the form of straw or native hay, and feed and stock supplies are absolutely needed to carry stock through the winter and early spring.

"The food situation will probably be rather serious in some of the States, Jackson County, West Virginia, reports that two families out of every five will not have sufficient food for the winter. Arkansas reports about 7 bushels of sweet potatoes and 8 gallons of sorghum to the farm family. These are two important food staples on most farms. Fall gardens will help in Arkansas. There were 53,341 fall gardens planted and much produce will be canned. Home demonstration agents are helping the women with their food budgets and showing them the best methods of canning.

"The live-at-home or safe farming program advocated by the Extension Service in many of the States has proved its worth. The cow, the sow and the hen are more important than ever. This year the farmer who farms with the sow, the cow and the hen has the edge on the one-crop farmer.

"In both the State and Federal organizations we realize the danger of pellagra and other nutritional diseases. The National Red Cross, the Public Health Service, the Extension Service and the Bureau of Home Economics of the Department of Agriculture are working out a cooperative program utilizing the existing agencies already set up in the counties. This program will bring to the attention of those in the drought area the foods which will prevent nutritional diseases. It will be urged that these foods be made available in every community at prices those in the drought area can afford to pay.

The cooperation of manufacturers and distributors will be requested. Some of the supplementary foods which the Bureau of Home Economics recommends are dry skin milk, evaporated milk, canned tomatoes and spinach, raw cabbage, cod liver oil, yeast, wheat germ, rice polish, cane or sorghum molasses, and canned salmon. "In many communities, leading citizens and business men are assisting farmers who have been most severely handicapped by the drought. We commend strongly the spirit and we are certain that in many communities the situation will be much improved by these efforts to meet the needs from local resources.

"In Allegheny County, Virginia, for example, the local dealers after passing on the reduced rate to the farmers felt that they, too, should make a contribution to help out. Accordingly they made a very considerable cut in their feed prices.

"The Middle Atlantic States have had no material drought, and we are fortunate that in these States have had no chance to get started. In some sections where fall pastures were soiled after the light September rains, the fall army worm came along and destroyed them. Most insects, including the corn borer, have been decreased by the drought, but the army worm is exceptionally bad this year.

Skeets Now Papa

"In the Mississippi and Ohio river valleys, the fall pastures and gardens are doing well. The rice, wheat, and alfalfa fields are producing a good growth, and are furnishing excellent pasture for the livestock. In these areas the feed problem has been much relieved and the enforced selling of livestock apparently has run its course. There has not been enough rain to replenish the water supply in Ohio, Kentucky, and the Middle Atlantic States, where farm and town water supplies constitute a serious problem.

"Reports show that farmers are planning to feed wheat, barley, cotton seed meal, and other substitutes for corn this winter. At the present low price of wheat, it is a cheap feed in most places. A farmer in Nebraska reports that he has collected $1.25 a bushel for the wheat he has fed to the hogs already sold and is enthusiastic over the results.

"Illinois is finding that one method of salvaging every bit of available feed supply is to provide good shelter from the rain for roughage and livestock. Shelter for the grain and roughage keeps it in a palatable condition and prevents spoilage and waste from mold. Shelter for livestock conserves feed by saving the animals' body heat.

"The activities in which county extension agents in Arkansas expect to engage in these next few months afford an excellent program for the extension forces in all parts of the drought area. They are the following:

Aiding the farmer to purchase additional supplies for their livestock.

Help plan a cropping system to produce feed as quickly and cheaply as possible next year.

Help plan the planting of cash crops early next season to provide money for taxes and necessary expenses in making a crop.

JACK HOLT IN NEW ROLE AT THE FOX

The chief concern of the man who pursues the lawless trade of bootlegging is to camouflage his calling. With this end in view he frequently pretends to be engaged in some perfectly respectable business. To make the deception more convincing, some even go so far as to maintain impressive offices and employ an efficient staff of assistants. So carefully is the true nature of the bootlegger's business concealed, that frequently his own secretary does not know that the letters she is writing are not what they seem, but are in code. In many cases, this camouflage is made necessary by the fact that the bootlegger is keeping his real calling secret from his society friends and club members, even from his own wife and family.

An interesting insight into the methods employed by these up-to-date lawbreakers is revealed in "The Squealer," Columbia's all-talking screen drama which comes to the Fox-California Theater tomorrow. One would never suspect by looking at the well-furnished modern office maintained by C. Hart—the leading character—that the man is anything but a prosperous real estate dealer. Velvet curtains, the solid mahogany desk—the well filled bookcase and efficient looking files—all suggest business integrity. But the camouflage of this apparent respectability is revealed the instant Hart speaks to the rat-faced man cowering beside him. The master bootlegger is planning the destruction of his victim—a squealer.

Holt In New Role

Special significance is added to this production by the fact that Jack Holt—the screen's most popular Western hero—appears in the role of Hart. This is the first time Holt has tried an underworld character. His portrayal of the role is convincing. Dorothy Revier plays opposite Holt, and others in the stellar case are Davey Lee, Matt Moore, Zasa Pitts, Robert Ellis, Arthur Housman and Louis Natheaux. Harry Joe Brown directed it.

Regents O.K. Girls Dormitory Plans

LOS ANGELES. — Architects' sketches for the new Mira Hershey hall, the first dormitory building that will be erected on the new campus of the University of California at Los Angeles, have been approved by the regents of the university and the completion of the detailed plans were ordered, according to announcement by Assistant Comptroller Robert M. Underhill. The building comes to the university as the result of a gift of $300,000 provided in the will of the late Mira Hershey, the will also providing a gift of an additional $100,000 to be used by the university as a loan fund for the benefit of students. The dormitory will be exclusively for women students. Sketches approved by the regents as prepared by Douglas McEllan, the architect, provides for a building three stories in height, to be fabricated with reinforced concrete and ornamented with brick and cast stone. It will be erected on the western side of Hilgard avenue, opposite the end of Manning avenue, the site being directly across Hilgard avenue from "sorority row."

NEW COMMANDER OF LEGION IN APPEAL TO AID JOBLESS

OMAHA, Neb., Oct. 31.—In his first principal address since his election as national commander of the American Legion, Ralph T. O'Neil, of Topeka, Kas., tonight called upon 881,000 Legionnaires to find that many jobs for idle World war veterans. If necessary, he asks that each man create work for that purpose.

The national commander spoke on the ideals of Legionism which call for service to the government and to the people of the nation, in sponsoring adequate national defense, in promoting patriotism, and in aiding in every way, in the present emergency of unemployment, as a duty of service. He then urged the 10,000 posts of the Legion to start work at once constructing post homes, or some other kind of needed building that will provide jobs. Earlier this fall, he said 4000 of the Legion's posts, replying to a questionnaire, gave an estimate totaling $10,000,000 to be expended by that number at some time in the future for construction.

"The creation of jobs for nearly one million men, and the building program, which would reach $25,000,000 at the same rate if applied to all posts, thrown quickly into the revival of business, can easily be a turning force for the revival of good times," the national commander said. "It is a concrete way of serving our nation. It also will be living up to two principles of Legionism, as expressed in the preamble of our constitution: 'To inculcate a sense of individual obligation to the community, state and nation'; and, 'to consecrate and sanctify our comradeship by our devotion to mutual helpfulness.'"

Legion To Aid

The national commander also announced that an unemployment commission of the Legion has been appointed, and that a meeting will be held at National headquarters in Indianapolis in a few days. On representatives in Indianapolis in a few days. On the commission, he said, are representatives from large industrial centers. Howard P. Savage, of Chicago, past national commander of the Legion, has been named chairman. Detailed plans are to be worked out, so that within the next 30 days every post in the country will be functioning to relieve unemployment, in a systematic way.

Other extracts of the address follow: "Recent estimates of President Hoover, according to the press, of the number of unemployed in this country is 3,500,000. This is about 1,000,000 greater than the estimate of April 1. According to the same source, based upon census figures, one million is the normal figure for unemployed, leaving two and one-half millions abnormally idle."

Many Veterans

"It is reasonable to assume, because of age, that a substantial portion of these two and one-half millions are veterans of the World War, men who have only fairly started, in the last dozen years, to establish themselves as heads of families."

"It is likewise reasonable to assume that the 881,000 members of the American Legion, are men of standing. That they are citizens of stability is shown by the fact that during the year 1929 and 1930, when the present depression was fully felt, the membership of our organization increased to its highest point in history."

"That the men of the Legion can turn this tide of unemployment, because they do have some means, not only to help themselves, but also to help their comrades, is evidenced by the fact that they hold dear the welfare of our country. The very fact that they are eligible to Legion membership, through honorable war service, is proof of their loyalty and patriotism."

To Aid Buddies

"That they will step to the front, and fill to a large extent the gap of a large extent the gap of unemployment, in any way each individual can fill his part of it, by providing jobs for their comrades who need them, is assured by their Legion oath. Already, some posts have started this service, in a scattering way. It is my firm belief that all others will join in the task when the need is impressed upon them. They have not forgotten their comradeship, or they would not be paying dues in the Legion for the privilege of keeping that comradeship alive. To a veteran of the World war, who shared the mud, and hunger, and sacrifices of the service, friendship is a living thing. It also is a practical means of doing team-work, such as is needed at this time to turn the tide of depression."

"That the time has now come, for Legionnaires to exert every effort at their command, to do this act of loyalty to country, and comradeship, as we'll, is shown by the headlines of the daily newspapers. One reads where 83,500 are idle in one of our industrial centers; that may sell property and avoid charity appeal; that 300,000 children in the city of Chicago, alone, are facing hunger in 75,000 destitute homes; of that city."

"At the same time we read of plans under consideration for the farm board, if and when properly authorized, by congress, to turn over wheat, purchased to stabilize prices, to the jobless. This may be necessary to feed our hungry people, but is not what any veteran who has served the colors of his country in time of war, wants, or will accept, if he can avoid it. He will accept the chance to earn his own living from another comrade, however, just as he once shared his bread and his cigarettes in another 'No Man's' land."

Many Legion Members

"Throughout our country, reaching into every habited district, is the Legion organization. Approximately 2000 of these Legion posts own their own club houses at this time. The approximate value of lands and buildings totals $12,570,238. This leaves some 8000 posts that have considerable money on hand for building in some instances gradually accumulated for a number of years. Experience in the early days of the Legion's history, has taught many of our posts to raise the money first, then build. "I believe, however, that conditions justify all posts to arrange for immediate building operations, and tonight, here and now, I call upon them to do so if arrangements can be made to finance them, over a term of years. Replies to the questionnaire sent to all posts, indicate that most of the contemplated construction will be in the form of new buildings, although a large number plan to remodel or improve present quarters."

"There are other ways for posts and for individual Legionnaires, to help. In the Veterans' Bureau offices of the larger cities, there have been established employment officers. The Legion should work in close harmony with these agencies. Frequently a Legionnaire will have a position, or know of one, but does not have contact with a comrade out of work. Such positions should be reported to these employment agencies established by act of congress to help veterans obtain jobs. In the thousands of communities where no such agencies exist, the Legion post can easily establish such a center for the registration of jobs and jobless."

Posts Aid

"As an illustration of what can be done, in Oyster Bay, New York, the Quentin Roosevelt Post, No. 4, of the Legion, has adopted a plan to relieve local unemployment, now known as the 'Oyster Bay Idea.' Oyster Bay business men, representatives of labor unions, and estate owners, are working together to advance the dates of contemplated construction work and improvements, with the object of placing men in work immediately on the various estates in Oyster Bay and surrounding communities."

"In Cuyahoga Falls, Ohio, the Faust post of the Legion is asking individuals, clubs and organizations of various kinds, to report

VETERAN DEEP SEA DIVER IN FILM

For twenty-two years, Tom Owen has been cheating the ocean of its toll.

Owen is a deep-sea diver. Because of the under-water pressure which usually strains the heart and weakens the human system, the average working life of the diver is five years. Owen has been following his profession for twenty-seven consecutive years.

Now the man who refused to heed the law of average is bringing his skill to the aid of the audience screen, acting as technical adviser for the under-ocean sequences of Paramount's new feature "The Sea God," opening today at the Fox-California Theater.

Owen, who makes his headquarters at Los Angeles harbor, had charge of the diving equipment used in the production. He also is personal instructor to Richard Arlen, who plays the scenes that were filmed on the floor of the Pacific.

The veteran diver passed on the locations selected for the under-ocean action. His judgment on the safety of weather conditions final and it was his responsibility to inspect all equipment and okay it before Arlen and the photographer who operated the submarine camera went under water.

Bierbauer Rites To Be Held Today

Funeril services for Carl Bierbauer, superintendent of the Hercules Powder company will be held at 10 o'clock this morning from St. Mark's church. The cortege will leave Wilson and Kratzers at 9:30.

The body is to be sent to Erie, Pa., where interment will be held.

any work which might be made available. Newspapers are aiding through the placing of free wanted ads.

"In 1921 and 1922, the American Legion, overnight, established employment agencies in their posts throughout the country, and soon put to work more than a million veterans. These unemployed had been unable to establish themselves upon their return from their service in the war. The fear of a long period of unrest as an aftermath of the war, quickly disappeared. Loyal to the flag under shot and shell, these men remained true and loyal in that emergency. Today the Legion faces a similar task-finding job. If it cannot be found, we'll create one until every man has work."

KING BORIS IS GUARDED IN SHOOTING

LONDON, Oct. 31.—UP—An exchange telegraph dispatch from Sofia today reported that despite official denials of an attack on the royal train of King Boris in Bulgaria, the Sofia police arrested numerous Russian and Bulgarian communists.

The arrests are made in connection with the reported attempt on the life of the king, the dispatch said.

HEAVY GUARDS PLACED AROUND KING

BERLIN, Oct. 31.—UP—A Sofia dispatch to the newspaper Berliner Tageblatt today said the Bulgarian police had been informed for days in advance that communists from Russia were planning the assassination of King Boris.

The dispatch said heavy guards were posted as a result, and that the police were on the look-out.

GUARD WOUNDED IN ATTACK UPON TRAIN

SOPIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 31.—UP—A somber note was added to the acclamation of King Boris III, and his bride, home from Italy today, by reports that a volley of shots from rifles in the hands of unknown marauders struck the royal train as it sped across Bulgaria toward the capital.

The reports said a guard was wounded in the foot and that the stock of another guard's rifle was shattered.

An official denial was issued, but the reports had reached Sofia even before the train arrived, and heavy guards were posted along the line of the royal procession through cheering but anxious throngs.

The attack was declared to have occurred near the ancient Macedonian city of Philippolis, some 85 miles east and a little south of Sofia. The shots rang out as the train approached the station of Madole, the reports said. None of the royal party was injured. The train made a brief halt and proceeded to the capital, where the king and queen were married again according to the eastern orthodox church rites.

The avenues from the railway station in Sofia to the cathedral were lined by a cordon of troops three deep. In the royal party aside from the king and his 23-year old dark eyed queen, the former Princess Giovanna of Italy were the king's brother and sister, Prince Cyril and Princess Eudoria. They met the royal yacht Czar Ferdinand at Bourgas on its arrival yesterday, after a stormy voyage from Italy.

The station was lavishly decorated with flags of both nations and garlands of flowers were strewn on the carpets over which the king and queen walked to their waiting motor car. King Boris, handsome and erect by the side of his little queen, looked stern and serious.

After the second marriage ceremony, the king and queen drove to the palace, where they witnessed a brilliant military display.

In the evening, torchlight processions wended through the city. The palace was splendid in flood lights.

Oil Field Saved In Big Grass Fire

The city council today to clear up the Topanga canyon fire break, which follows the city boundary for eight miles and extends three miles into the canyon. The reason for this move was said to be that fire hazards exist in that territory.

Meanwhile, to the north in Ventura county, a fire which started in Tapo canyon on the Newhall ranch, had passed around the Mantebello oil field and was burning toward the Grimes canyon road, three miles west of the oil field.

The fire was still burning strongly. The blaze divided on the ridge of Tapo canyon just after it started Tuesday morning. The half, which burned toward Moorpark was under control tonight.

Serious Blaze
The fire advancing toward Seminoe Hot Springs was the most serious at present.

The area is covered with brush and small trees, which had not been touched by fire for more than 50 years.

The exclusive film colony at Malibu beach is not the same as Malibu lake, which is in the path of the fire, but some distance ahead. The beach is on the Malibu ranch, which is near the Roosevelt highway. The ranch, which is 22 miles long and only a mile wide, was south of the blaze and not in its path when the fire turned northeast.

As the fire grew more serious, additional men were recruited or drafted and sent to the fire lines. At one time during the day, the flames were within a mile of the Decker ranch buildings.

The girl, Rose Norris, became convinced after long questioning by detectives, that her boy friend, Charles Rocco, 21, would be hanged for the stabbing of Merrill.

"There's the one who did the stabbing," she cried pointing to Rocco's companion, John Papacue, 22.

Police said they later obtained confessions from the two youths to 75 robberies, in addition to the holdup and murder of the banker.

3029 Students Drive Autos To U. C. L. A. Campus

LOS ANGELES.—A total of 3029 students of the University of California at Los Angeles drive automobiles to the campus as a regular means of transportation according to Alpha Delta Sigma, national advertising fraternity, members of which have just concluded a census of the transportation question of students. A total of 5733 students is registered for this semester, being a gain of 189 students more than were registered for the fall semester a year ago. This averages slightly more than one automobile for every two students registered.

The fraternity has also segregated the total into the types and makes of autos, and this shows that 320 cars are of the touring type; 866 are roadsters; 1076 are coupes, and 764 are sedans. The makes include almost every make of car now manufactured, ranging from the lowest to the highest price.

The figures will be compared with those from other universities and colleges to determine whether any other institution of higher education utilizes as many cars per capital of students.

Probe Opens In Job Charges

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Oct. 30.—UP—Representatives of the United States Public Service Commission arrived here today to begin a preliminary investigation of charges made by state Democratic leaders that the Republican state central committee had levied a campaign assessment upon civil service employees.

Certain documents assertedly substantiating the charges were given the investigators by Dr. T. K. Cassidy, state Democratic chairman, who advocated the investigation.

Republican leaders maintained all contributions from federal employees in Wyoming were made voluntarily.

A new attack on the charges of conspiracy to accept a bribe which resulted in his sentence to the penitentiary was made today by Asa Keyes, former district attorney of Los Angeles county.

In the office of Warden James B. Holohan, Keyes denied that he had "confessed" the charges, which followed collapse of the Julian Oil corporation, adding that he had not even discussed the case since coming here.

"I have not confessed because there is nothing to confess," he said. "I could scarcely admit a guilt that I deny exists."

Keyes is serving a sentence of from one to 14 years.

Diversification Brings Success

The Richmond of today is a city of many industries, and the Richmond of the future will be one of still greater industrial diversification.

As a man who has invested his money in a number of different enterprises enjoys safety of his principal, so a city which is the home of a variety of industrial enterprises has economic safety for its people.

The advantages which Richmond possesses as to climate, rail and water facilities, highways and cheap industrial are such as to appeal to industries of many kinds, near and small. Any industry desiring a western location whether directly on the water or adjacent thereto can find an ideal site in Richmond. It is this fact which has brought such gigantic industries as the Standard Oil, the Pullman, Certain-teed Products Corporation, and now the Ford Motor Company. The numerous inquiries by smaller concerns for Richmond locations mean that in the near future Richmond is to be the home of a great many modest plants of one kind and another, each one adding to the pay roll and to the prosperity of the city.

In a city like Detroit, which exists almost solely on the manufacture of automobiles, a shut down of that industry practically paralyzes the community. In Richmond, home of so many enterprises, conditions are never far below normal even in periods of the most drastic retrenchment. As a private business exerts itself more strenuously in dull times to secure business, so the Chamber of Commerce is working aggressively during the current depression to bring new industries to Richmond. The success which it has had in this regard in the past augurs well for its successful performance in the future.

This year six welfare agencies of Richmond, El Cerrito and San Pablo are making a joint appeal for aid under the Richmond Community Chest. The Chamber of Commerce believes it is more satisfactory to finance welfare work in one combined appeal than in a number of separate campaigns, and urges support for the Chest.

WATSON URGES ELECTION OF REPUBLICANS

CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—UP—Senator James E. Watson of Indiana, speaking over a national radio hookup here tonight under auspices of the Republican National committee, urged voters next Tuesday "to elect a congress Republican in both its branches."

If Republicans lose their power in congress, he said progress and further execution "of plans demanded by the people two years ago" will be stopped.

Watson quoted from recent radio speeches by John J. Raskob, chairman of the Democratic national committee and Al Smith, Democratic nominee for president in 1928.

Although Raskob sees prosperity on the way and predicts it will be in full bloom within three months, said Watson, Smith sees nothing but gloom continuing for an indefinite period. Watson commended Smith "for absolving the Republican party of blame for unemployment," but said the governor had failed "to tell how the Democrats would improve the situation."

Unemployment Group Meets

MEMBERS OF the special committee appointed by President Hoover to determine means of preventing suffering due to unemployment during the winter. ## Troops Guard City As Gusher Rains Oil

(Continued from page 1) and on the capital building. Few motor cars were on the streets. Windshields of these soon became almost opaque from the oil.

Officials tested the gas in the air and stood ready to order evacuation of an area more than a mile square. Already families were moving from houses nearby.

Airplanes were escorted in a detour as they approached Oklahoma City. There was danger of their exhausts causing aerial explosions in the charged atmosphere.

Large Loss

Meanwhile at a foundry a device was fashioned which it was hoped would cap the powerful well. The device is known as a "Christmas tree" and is a powerful iron peak equipped with valves. It was completed shortly after midnight and preparations were made to attempt to adjust it over the gusher.

Veteran oil men described the wild well as the most tremendous they had ever seen.

It was estimated that the daily loss from the wasted oil would amount to $125,000. The Champlin Refining company built pipes to the scene and diverted a portion of the oil into tanks. Embankments were thrown up in nearby streets and dammed the black flood into lakes. Workmen wore steel helmets.

Soaping Street Car Tracks Lost To S. F.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—UP—San Francisco's younger generation today bemoaned the loss of one of its pet Halloween diversions of previous years. Formerly it was the delight of the more daring fun seekers to soap the tracks of the old "Toonerville Trolley," more formally known as the "Pacific Ave. Cable Car," and howl with delight when the old fashioned "dummy car" was unable to get traction on the steep hills. But Pacific street was paved and the old cable line permanently abandoned early this year, so that the local gangs were forced to seek other methods tonight to enjoy themselves.

SELLING WAVE HITS STOCK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—UP—October ended on the Stock Exchange today with another wave of selling that brought the industrial average to new low ground since 1928. More millions were wrung from Stock exchange values as the various issues dipped to lower levels.

Radio corporation headed the list with sales of 103,200 shares; International Nickel second with 100,800 shares, U. S. Steel, Westinghouse Electric, General Motors, Bethlehem Steel, General Electric, Radio-Keith, American Can, Du Pont, United Aircraft, Kennecott, Warner Brothers Pictures, Union Carbide and Vanadium. These stocks lost 1 to more than 3 points net.

Stocks on the curb exchange dropped with issues on the big board. Bonds were irregular and more active. Cotton and grains sold off.

Call money held at 2 per cent all day, completing a full month at that rate, the second time in history this has occurred.

Reasons for today's selling were not difficult to find. The principal one was the statement by Eugene G. Grace, president of Bethlehem Steel that business did not show signs of picking up and that the outlook was not good for the coming year.

Other adverse factors included poor earnings statements by several large corporations, including Auburn whose earnings were equivalent to 97 cents a share, against $6.06 in the third quarter of 1929.

General Motors after the close reported earnings for the third quarter of only 53 cents a share. This compared with $1.58 a common share in the corresponding period of 1929.

BUSINESS AIDED BY ADS, REPORT DECLARES

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31.—A report on current trade conditions by Marc N. Goodnow, Journalism field representative of the University of California, just made public, reveals that advice of business statisticians to business houses to increase their advertising appropriations already had been reflected in retail lines in California.

"Perhaps the two most important things that face the independent retailer today," Goodnow's report said, "are competition from chain stores and the necessity of getting a message consistently before a larger body of people. Not only are the chains growing in number of outlets, but a number of them are increasing their advertising appropriations."

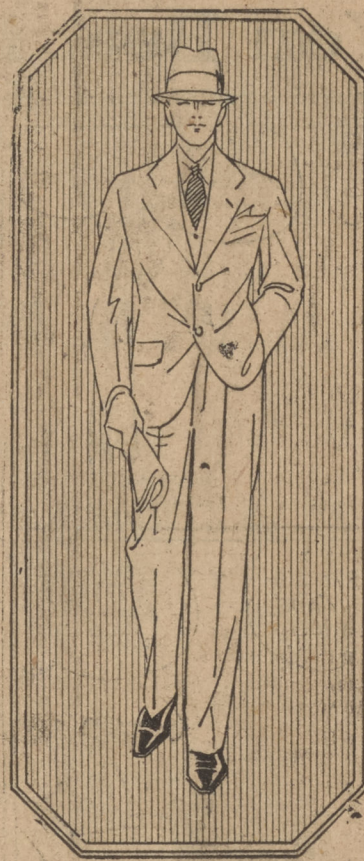

"One of the largest mail order chains (Sears-Roebuck & Co.) will spend this year $4,250,000 for advertising in 544 newspapers, an increase of 25 per cent over 1929. This appropriation is about 1 per cent of gross sales. Other houses have maintained their customary appropriation of 1 per cent of gross sales for advertising purposes and are conducting aggressive newspaper advertising campaigns."

"Even in many instances where chain volumes have not equaled those of last year, the advertising appropriations have not been materially changed." Goodnow's report said. "In general the independent merchant whose volume has decreased has neglected to maintain sufficient advertising space. Undoubtedly, this policy of the independent has been responsible for a part of the increase in chain volumes."

"The fact that the national chain stores recognize the value of local newspaper advertising should mean much to the independent merchant. With the same medium of advertising at his command, he has a different message to publicize—one that is local and personal in nature. With merchandise that meets the quality test, together with all the service features which he may offer the independent merchant is by no means limited in his advertising or his merchandising by any form of competition."
